

LOVE, GILDA

the documentary [now on television] explores the life and career of comedienne and actress Gilda Radner.

Gilda was the first member hired for Saturday Night Live (SNL) when it debuted in 1975 and was later honored in 1977 with an Emmy® Award for her work on SNL.

GILDA RADNER

*"I wanted a perfect ending.
Now I have learned the hard way,
that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories
don't have a clear beginning, middle and end.
Life is about not knowing, having to change,
taking the moment and making the best of it,
without knowing what's going to happen next."*

In her own words, comedienne Gilda Radner looks back and reflects on her life and career. Weaving together recently discovered audiotapes, interviews with her friends, rare home movies and diaries read by modern day comediennes inspired by Gilda (Amy Poehler, Maya Rudolph, Bill Hader and Cecily Strong), LOVE, GILDA offers a unique window into the honest and whimsical world of a beloved performer whose greatest role was sharing her story.
